

Annie Kentwell
Heart Foundation

Biography

Annie Kentwell is an urban health planner who currently works as the Active Living Coordinator at Heart Foundation ACT, as well as an Ambulance Community Officer with Ambulance Victoria in Far East Gippsland. Prior to this, Annie was the Facilitator for Healthy Spaces & Places, and Professional Ethics in Planning with the Planning Institute of Australia. Annie has worked throughout urban, rural and remote areas in Australia regarding community consultation, training and education, social and environmental planning, research and policy development.