

Clare Brown
Urbis

Biography

Clare Brown is a Director at Urbis and has more than 30 years' experience as a highly accomplished planner and lawyer, working across both the public and private sectors.

Clare is a skilled statutory and strategic planner, with expertise in large urban development projects, preparing planning instruments, feasibility studies, due diligence and statutory drafting.

Recently, Clare has been instrumental in progressing renewable energy projects including a national roll-out of solar farms and an innovative Energy from Waste proposal.