

David Corkill
Ethos Urban

Biography

David is the Queensland Regional Director of Ethos Urban and brings 27 years' experience in consultancy and local government. David is skilled at working with communities, elected representatives and stakeholders to deliver solutions to complex urban management challenges drawing on an experience that spans state, regional and local plans and a diversity of urban planning, infrastructure, environment and natural hazard projects. David has planning, environment and business qualifications and sits on the Griffith University - Planning Discipline Professional Advisory Board.