

Felicity Niemann
Wallmans Lawyers

Biography

Felicity has comprehensive experience as a specialist planning and environment lawyer who provides practical and straightforward advice. Felicity has practiced exclusively in this area for over 12 years.

Felicity has a Bachelor of Laws (with Honours) and Bachelor of Arts (majoring in Politics) degrees from the University of Adelaide and a Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice.

Felicity is active and dedicated to her industry and regularly conducts training with allied professional associations including the Planning Institute of Australia.