

Julie Brook
Meridian Urban

Biography

Julie Brook is an Associate level urban planner with more than 10 years' experience with local government and private practice in both development assessment and strategic planning. She specialises in local and regional planning strategies and is passionate about housing diversity. Her special interests include Planning and Environment and Land Court matters, local heritage and agricultural land. She is a Registered Planner and holds an MBA, and was awarded Queensland Young Planner of the Year in 2016 by the Planning Institute of Australia.