

Karima Palafox
Urbis

Biography

Karima Palafox is an international advisory expert in planning, urban design and policy. She has led development plans for communities, cities and infrastructure and has overseen a range of projects – from tourism, mixed-use and residential to post-crisis rehabilitation. Karima has recently joined Urbis in a national role. Previously, she was Managing Partner of a leading design firm in Asia. Karima has presented at international conferences, and is a chartered RTPI member and a licensed environmental planner in the Philippines.