

Kate Ryan
Urbis

Biography

Kate Ryan is a Senior Consultant in the Urbis Planning Team. Kate has a strong understanding of the NSW planning system and exhibits a coordinated and diligent approach in navigating complex planning issues.

Kate has applied her specialist knowledge of cemetery planning on a number of current rezoning and development applications. Her statutory planning knowledge of the interment industry is strengthened through her research in sustainable burial practices which could prolong the life of cemeteries in the future.

Cameron is a highly experienced urban planner having operated extensively in urban and regional areas across the eastern seaboard of Australia with a principal focus on the western and southern suburbs of Sydney.

Cameron is the town planning lead for nearly 200 hectares of new cemetery lands in Sydney working with the industry to identify new sites and work with the property industry at large to see a sustainable facility constructed to facilitate the ongoing growth of Sydney.