

Lisa Dunlop
Level Crossing Removal Authority

Biography

Lisa brings a broad wealth of knowledge across all levels of government, with more than 18 years of experience within planning. Through creative and innovative thinking, her ability to analyse complex planning problems sees her implement successful and strategic solutions. Lisa has a thorough understanding of local government and planning legislative and operational requirements, policies and procedures.

A strong advocate for strategic planning and context sensitive design, her results driven motivation helps deliver plans to improve conditions for the community.