

Martin Garred
Urbis

Biography

Martin is an urban planner with experience in the planning and urban development industry, including consultancy and State Government roles, on the Gold Coast.

He draws from a diverse skillset in both development assessment and strategic planning. Martin is committed to innovative and outcome focused planning solutions and enjoys driving projects from inception to completion.

As an executive management committee member of YP Gold Coast, Martin is an active participant in industry debate and city advocacy policy development.