

Merran Morrison
Publicart Works P/I

Biography

As a public art consultant, cultural planner and curator, Merran's expertise includes the development of public policies, cultural strategies, and the implementation of a wide range of urban, architectural and public art projects. Her specialty is in integrating art into the built environment melding the cultural character and identity of a place, stimulating holistic planning outcomes. She has academic background in urban design and town planning reflecting a passion for the role of artists in city building and place activation.