

Mark Parnell
Parliament of South Australia

Biography

Mark Parnell MLC LLB BCom MRUP has represented The Greens in the South Australian Legislative Council since 2006. He serves on the Parliamentary Committee with oversight of the planning system and is the only SA MP with formal planning qualifications. Prior to Parliament, Mark worked as an environmental lawyer and advocate in the non-profit sector for 16 years. He has also taught environmental and planning law at all three SA universities and overseas.