

Robyn Eisermann
Tweed Shire Council

Biography

Robert Appo is the Community Development Officer at Tweed Shire Council. He has a background in community development roles in the arts and cultural heritage.

Rob has worked for Local Government, private consultancies and not for profit organisations. Rob has extensive experience in Aboriginal community consultation and communicating effectively with discrete communities. Rob is passionate about making a difference in the roles that he undertakes.